

STATEMENT TO

[First Reprint]

SENATE, No. 2256

with Senate Floor Amendments
(Proposed by Senator TURNER)

ADOPTED: OCTOBER 17, 2022

These floor amendments require that the bill's prohibition on the use of a severe discrepancy between intellectual ability and achievement for determining whether a student has a specific learning disability would be effective in the fourth full school year following the date of enactment, rather than July 1, 2024.