1 A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION apologizing for the wrongs of slavery 2 and expressing New Jersey's profound regret for its role in 3 slavery.
4
5 WHEREAS, Slavery has been documented as a worldwide practice 6 since antiquity, dating back to 3500 B.C. in ancient Mesopotamia; 7 and
8 WHEREAS, During the existence of the Atlantic Slave Trade, millions 9 of Africans became involuntary immigrants to the New World, and 10 millions more died during passage; the first African slaves in the 11 North American colonies were brought to Jamestown, in 1619; and 12 WHEREAS, The Atlantic Slave Trade was a lucrative enterprise, and 13 African slaves, a prized commodity to support the economic base of 14 plantations in the colonies, were traded for tropical products, 15 manufactured goods, sugar, molasses, and other merchandise; and 16 WHEREAS, Some African captives resisted enslavement by fleeing 17 from slave forts on the West African coast and others mutinied 18 aboard slave trading vessels, cast themselves into the Atlantic 19 Ocean, or risked the cruel retaliation of their masters by running 20 away to seek freedom; and 21 WHEREAS, Although the United States outlawed the transatlantic slave 22 trade in 1808, the domestic slave trade in the colonies and illegal 23 importation continued for several decades; and 24 WHEREAS, Slavery, or the "Peculiar Institution," in the United States 25 resembled no other form of involuntary servitude, as Africans were 26 captured and sold at auction as chattel, like inanimate property or 27 animals; and 28 WHEREAS, To prime Africans for slavery, the fundamental values of 29 the Africans were shattered; they were brutalized, humiliated, 30 dehumanized, and subjected to the indignity of being stripped of 31 their names and heritage; women and girls were raped, and families 32 were disassembled as husbands and wives, mothers and daughters, 33 and fathers and sons were sold into slavery apart from one another; 34 and
35 WHEREAS, A series of complex colonial laws was enacted to relegate 36 the status of Africans and their descendants to slavery, in spite of 37 their loyalty, dedication, and service to the country, including 38 heroic and distinguished service in the Revolutionary War, Civil 39 War, and all other conflicts and military actions involving the 40 United States military; and 41 WHEREAS, New Jersey, with as many as 12,000 slaves, had one of the 42 largest populations of captive Africans in the northern colonies; and 43 WHEREAS, In 1786, the State of New Jersey enacted a law that 44 prohibited the importation of slaves into this State and made owners 45 punishable for the mistreatment of slaves; and 46 WHEREAS, Although the State of New Jersey passed a gradual 47 emancipation law in 1804, it was the last northern state to 48 emancipate its slaves, and required all children of slaves born after

1 July 4, 1804 to remain the “servant of the owner of his or her 2 mother” until they were twenty-one years of age for women or 3 twenty-five years of age for men; and 4 WHEREAS, New Jersey had one of the severest slave codes in the 5 northern colonies and was one of the few northern states to sanction 6 the Fugitive Slave Act of 1850, which permitted authorities in free 7 states to return runaway slaves to their owners, with the result that 8 Underground Railroad passengers had to proceed with utmost 9 caution in this State; and

10 WHEREAS, In 1846, New Jersey passed a law officially abolishing 11 slavery; and

12 WHEREAS, The system of slavery had become entrenched in American 13 history and the social fabric, and the issue of enslaved Africans had 14 to be addressed as a national issue, contributing to the Civil War 15 from 1861 to 1865 and the passage of the 13th Amendment to the 16 United States Constitution, which abolished slavery and involuntary 17 servitude on December 18, 1865; and

18 WHEREAS, New Jersey adopted the Thirteenth Amendment on January 19 23, 1866 only after originally rejecting it on March 16, 1865; and 20 WHEREAS, After emancipation from 246 years of slavery, African-21 Americans soon saw the political, social, and economic gains they 22 made during Reconstruction dissipated by virulent and rabid

23 racism, lynchings, disenfranchisement of African-American voters, 24 Black Codes designed to reimpose the subordination of African-25 Americans, and Jim Crow laws that instituted a rigid system of state 26 sanctioned segregation in virtually all areas of life and lasted until 27 the passage of the 1964 Civil Rights Act and the 1965 Voting 28 Rights Act; and

29 WHEREAS, Throughout their existence in America and even in the 30 decades after the Civil Rights Movement, African-Americans have 31 found the struggle to overcome the bitter legacy of slavery long and 32 arduous, and for many African-Americans the scars left behind are 33 unbearable, haunting their psyches and clouding their vision of the 34 future and of America's many positive attributes; and

35 WHEREAS, Our nation acknowledges the crimes and persecution
36 visited upon other peoples during World War II lest the world 37 forget, yet the very mention of the broken promise of "40 acres and 38 a mule" to former slaves or of the existence of racism today evokes 39 denial from many quarters of any responsibility for the centuries of 40 legally sanctioned deprivation of African-Americans of their 41 endowed rights or for contemporary policies that perpetuate the 42 existing state of affairs; and

43 WHEREAS, In 2003, during a trip to Goree Island, Senegal, a former 44 slave port, President George W. Bush stated, "At this place, liberty 45 and life were stolen and sold. Human Beings were delivered and 46 sorted, and weighed, and branded with the marks of commercial 47 enterprises, and loaded as cargo on a voyage without return. One of 48 the largest migrations of history was also one of the greatest crimes

1 of history.... For 250 years the captives endured an assault on their 2 culture and their dignity.... Small men took on the powers and airs
3 of tyrants and masters. Years of unpunished brutality and bullying
4 and rape produced a dullness and hardness of conscience. Christian 5 men and women became blind to the clearest commands of their 6 faith and added hypocrisy to injustice.... We can finally judge the 7 past by the standards of President John Adams, who called slavery 8 'an evil of colossal magnitude'.... My nation's journey toward 9 justice has not been easy, and it is not over. The racial bigotry fed 10 by slavery did not end with slavery or with segregation ... and many 11 of the issues that still trouble America have roots in the bitter 12 experience of other times ...; and

13 WHEREAS, In New Jersey the vestiges of slavery are ever before 14 African-American citizens, from the overt racism of hate groups to 15 the subtle racism encountered when requesting health care, 16 transacting business, buying a home, seeking quality public 17 education and college admission, and enduring pretextual traffic 18 stops and other indignities; and 19 WHEREAS, European and African nations have apologized for their 20 roles in what history calls the worst holocaust of humankind, the 21 Atlantic Slave Trade, and racial reconciliation is impossible without 22 some acknowledgment of the moral and legal injustices perpetrated 23 upon African-Americans; and 24 WHEREAS, An apology for centuries of brutal dehumanization and 25 injustices cannot erase the past, but confession of the wrongs can 26 speed racial healing and reconciliation and help African-American 27 and white citizens confront the ghosts of their collective pasts 28 together; and

29 WHEREAS, The story of the enslavement of Africans and their 30 descendants, the human carnage, and the dehumanizing atrocities
31 committed during slavery should not be purged from New Jersey's 32 history or discounted; moreover, the faith, perseverance, hope, and 33 endless triumphs of African-Americans and their significant 34 contributions to the development of this State and the nation should 35 be embraced, celebrated, and retold for generations to come; and

36 WHEREAS, The perpetual pain, distrust, and bitterness of many 37 African-Americans could be assuaged and the principles espoused 38 by the Founding Fathers would be affirmed, and great strides 39 toward unifying all New Jerseyans and inspiring the nation to 40 acquiesce might be accomplished, if on the eve of the 41 commemoration of the 400th anniversary of the first permanent 42 English settlement in the New World, the State acknowledged and 43 atoned for its role in the slavery of Africans; and

44 WHEREAS, Acknowledging that there is a difference between wrong 45 and right, and that slavery as an American "institution" was a 46 wrong committed upon millions of African Americans and that 47 their descendants continue to suffer from the effects of Jim Crow

1 laws, segregation, housing discrimination, discrimination in 2 education, and other ills inflicted upon African-Americans; and 3 WHEREAS, The State of New Jersey, the Governor, and its citizens are 4 conscious that under slavery many atrocities and gross violations of 5 human rights were imposed upon African-Americans, and that 6 acknowledging these facts can and will avert future tragedies, be 7 they in the Sudan, or other parts of the world; now, therefore,

8
9 BE IT RESOLVED by the General Assembly of the State of New 10 Jersey (the Senate concurring):

12 1. The Legislature of the State of New Jersey expresses its 13 profound regret for the State's role in slavery and apologizes for the 14 wrongs inflicted by slavery and its after effects in the United States 15 of America; expresses its deepest sympathies and solemn regrets to 16 those who were enslaved and the descendants of those slaves, who 17 were deprived of life, human dignity, and the constitutional 18 protections accorded all citizens of the United States; and we 19 encourage all citizens to remember and teach their children about 20 the history of slavery, Jim Crow laws, and modern day slavery, to 21 ensure that these tragedies will neither be forgotten nor repeated.

23 2. It is the intent of the Legislature that this resolution shall not 24 be used in, or be the basis of, any type of litigation.

26 3. Duly authenticated copies of this resolution, signed by the 27 President of the Senate and Speaker of the General Assembly and 28 attested by the Secretary of the Senate and the Clerk of the General 29 Assembly, shall be transmitted to the New Jersey Secretary of State, 30 all New Jersey branches of the National Association for the 31 Advancement for Colored People, Garden State Bar Association, 32 the Amistad Commission, and the New Jersey Commission on 33 Higher Education.

36 STATEMENT

37

38 This concurrent resolution issues a formal apology on behalf of 39 the State of New Jersey for its role in slavery and discusses the 40 history of racism and inhumane treatment toward African-41 Americans in the United States from the arrival of its first settlers to 42 the present day. It calls upon the citizens of this State to remember 43 that slavery continues to exist and encourages them to teach about 44 the history and legacy of slavery and Jim Crow laws.
