15 "Caretaker" means a person who is in possession of an animal and a 16 person upon whom the care, health, safety and welfare of the animal 17 are primarily dependent.

18 "Minimum care" means care sufficient to preserve the health and 19 wellbeing of an animal and, except for emergencies or circumstances 20 beyond the control of the person responsible for the care of the animal, 21 provide the following: (1) food of sufficient quantity and quality to 22 allow for normal growth or maintenance of body weight; (2) open or 23 adequate access to drinkable water of an appropriate temperature in 24 sufficient quantity to satisfy the needs of the animal; (3) access to an 25 enclosed nonhazardous structure sufficient to protect the animal from 26 the weather that has adequate bedding to protect against cold and 27 dampness; (4) adequate protection from extreme or excessive sunlight
28 and from overexposure to the sun, heat, and other weather conditions;
29 (5) veterinary care deemed necessary by a reasonably prudent person 30 to prevent or relieve injury, neglect, or disease, or distress from these 31 conditions; and (6) reasonable access to a clean and adequate exercise 32 area.

33 "Owner of the animal" means a person who is the caretaker of an 34 animal in question and has the legal right of possession of the animal 35 and any legal title to its ownership.

36 "Possession" means having physical custody of, having legal 37 custody over, being in charge of, or having physical control over an 38 animal, whether temporarily or as an owner of the animal, or a 39 building, premises, or other real property .

41
42 2. (New section) a. A person is guilty of hoarding animals if the 43 person keeps or has possession of a number of animals in a quantity 44 such that the person fails or is unable to provide minimum care for all 45 of the animals and, due to the failure or inability to provide minimum

EXPLANATION – Matter enclosed in bold-faced brackets [thus] in the above bill is not enacted and is intended to be omitted in the law.

Matter underlined thus is new matter.

1 care, at least some of the animals experience death, bodily injury or 2 other serious adverse health consequences. Animal hoarding is a crime 3 of the fourth degree.

4 b. The number of animals kept or in the possession of a person
5 shall not be determinative of whether there has been a violation of this 6 section, but may be considered as a factor in determining whether 7 animals have been provided minimum care.

8 c. Each course of conduct involving the hoarding of animals, not 9 each animal involved, shall constitute a separate offense.

10

11 3. R.S.4:22-26 is amended to read as follows:

STATEMENT

38 This bill would establish animal hoarding as a crime of the fourth 39 degree and as a civil animal cruelty offense.

40 A person would be guilty of hoarding animals if the person keeps or 41 has possession of a number of animals in a quantity such that the 42 person fails or is unable to provide minimum care for all of the 43 animals and, due to the failure or inability to provide minimum care, at 44 least some of the animals experience death, bodily injury or other 45 serious adverse health consequences. The number of animals kept or in 46 the possession of a person would not be determinative of whether there 47 has been a violation of this bill, but may be considered as a factor in 48 determining whether animals have been provided minimum care.

1 A person who has been convicted of the crime of animal 2 hoarding may be sentenced to pay a fine not to exceed $10,000, and 3 imprisonment for a specific term not to exceed 18 months. Each
4 instance of a person found guilty of criminal animal hoarding, not each
5 animal involved, would constitute a separate offense. A person found 6 guilty of the civil offense of animal hoarding would be liable for a 7 civil penalty of between $1,000 and $3,000.
