- b. Except as otherwise allowed or required by law, a provider, broker, insurance company, insurance producer, information bureau, rating agency or company, or any other person with actual knowledge of an insured's identity, shall not disclose the identity of an insured or information that there is a reasonable basis to believe could be used to identify the insured or the insured's financial or medical information to any other person unless the disclosure:
- (1) Is necessary to effect a life settlement contract between the owner and a provider and the owner and insured have provided prior written consent to the disclosure;
- (2) Is necessary to effectuate the sale of life settlement contracts, or interests therein, as investments, so long as the sale is conducted in accordance with applicable state and federal securities law and the owner and the insured have both provided prior written consent to the disclosure;
- (3) Is provided in response to an investigation or examination by the commissioner or any other governmental officer or agency or pursuant to the requirements of section 13 of this act;
- (4) Is a term or condition to the transfer of a policy by one provider to another provider, in which case the receiving provider shall be required to comply with the confidentiality requirements of this subsection;
- (5) Is necessary to allow the provider or broker or their authorized representatives to make contacts for the purpose of determining health status. For the purposes of this paragraph, the term "authorized representative" shall not include any person who has or may have any financial interest in the settlement contract other than a provider, licensed broker, financing entity, related provider trust or special purpose entity. A provider or broker shall require its authorized representative to agree in writing to adhere to the privacy provisions of this act; or
 - (6) Is required to purchase stop loss coverage.
- c. Non-public personal information solicited or obtained in connection with a proposed or actual life settlement contract shall be subject to the provisions applicable to financial institutions under

- 7. (New section) a. The commissioner may, when he deems it reasonably necessary to protect the interests of the public, examine the business and affairs of any licensee or applicant for a license. The commissioner may order any licensee or applicant to produce any records, books, files or other information reasonably necessary to ascertain whether that licensee or applicant is acting or has acted in violation of the law or otherwise contrary to the interests of the public. The expenses incurred in conducting any examination shall be paid by the licensee or applicant.
- b. In lieu of an examination under this act of any foreign or alien licensee licensed in this State, the commissioner may, at his discretion, accept an examination report on the licensee as prepared by the commissioner for the licensee's state of domicile or port-of-entry state.
- c. Names and individual identification data, for all owners and insureds shall be considered private and confidential information and shall not be disclosed by the commissioner unless required by law.
- d. Records of all consummated transactions and life settlement contracts shall be maintained by the provider for three years after the death of the insured and shall be available to the commissioner for inspection during reasonable business hours.
- e. (1) Upon determining that an examination should be conducted, the commissioner shall issue an examination warrant appointing one or more examiners to perform the examination and instructing them as to the scope of the examination. In conducting the examination, the examiner shall use methods common to the examination of any life settlement licensee and should use those guidelines and procedures set forth in an examiners' handbook adopted by a national organization.
- (2) Every licensee or person from whom information is sought, its officers, directors and agents, shall provide to the examiners timely, convenient and free access at all reasonable hours at its offices to all books, records, accounts, papers, documents, assets and computer or other recordings relating to the property, assets, business and affairs of the licensee being examined. The officers, directors, employees and agents of the licensee or person shall facilitate the examination and aid in the examination so far as it is in their power to do. The refusal of a licensee, by its officers, directors, employees or agents, to submit to examination or to comply with any reasonable written request of the commissioner shall be grounds for suspension or refusal of, or nonrenewal of any license or authority held by the licensee to engage in the life settlement business or other business subject to the commissioner's jurisdiction. Any proceedings for suspension, revocation or refusal of any license or authority shall be conducted pursuant to the "Administrative Procedure Act," P.L.1968, c.410 (C.52:14B-1 et seq.).

- (3) The commissioner shall have the power to issue subpoenas, to administer oaths and to examine under oath any person as to any matter pertinent to the examination. Upon the failure or refusal of a person to obey a subpoena, the commissioner may petition a court of competent jurisdiction, and upon proper showing, the court may enter an order compelling the witness to appear and testify or produce documentary evidence.
- (4) When making an examination under this act, the commissioner may retain attorneys, appraisers, independent actuaries, independent certified public accountants or other professionals and specialists as examiners, the reasonable cost of which shall be borne by the licensee that is the subject of the examination.
- (5) Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to terminate or suspend an examination in order to pursue other legal or regulatory action pursuant to the insurance laws of this State. Findings of fact and conclusions made pursuant to any examination shall be prima facie evidence in any legal or regulatory action.
- (6) Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to limit the commissioner's authority to use and, if appropriate, to make public any final or preliminary examination report, any examiner or licensee work papers or other documents, or any other information discovered or developed during the course of any examination in the furtherance of any legal or regulatory action which the commissioner may, in his sole discretion, deem appropriate.
- f. (1) Examination reports shall be comprised of only facts appearing upon the books, from the testimony of its officers or agents or other persons examined concerning its affairs, and those conclusions and recommendations which the examiners find reasonably warranted from the facts.
- (2) No later than 60 days following completion of the examination, the examiner in charge shall file with the commissioner a verified written report of examination under oath. Upon receipt of the verified report, the commissioner shall transmit the report to the licensee examined, together with a notice that shall afford the licensee examined a reasonable opportunity of not more than 30 days to make a written submission or rebuttal with respect to any matters contained in the examination report and which shall become part of the report or to request a hearing on any matter in dispute.

- (3) If the commissioner determines that regulatory action is appropriate as a result of an examination, the commissioner may initiate any proceedings or actions provided by law.
- g. (1) Names and individual identification data for all owners, purchasers, and insureds shall be considered private and confidential information and shall not be disclosed by the commissioner, unless the disclosure is to another regulator or is required by law.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in this act, all examination reports, working papers, recorded information, documents and copies thereof produced by, obtained by or disclosed to the commissioner or any other person in the course of an examination made under this act, or in the course of analysis or investigation by the commissioner of the financial condition or market conduct of a licensee shall be confidential by law and privileged, shall not be subject to any State or federal freedom of information law, shall not be subject to subpoena, and shall not be subject to discovery or admissible in evidence in any private civil action. The commissioner is authorized to use the documents, materials or other information in the furtherance of any regulatory or legal action brought as part of the commissioner's official duties. The licensee being examined may have access to all documents used to make the report.
 - h. (1) An examiner may not be appointed by the commissioner if the examiner, either directly or indirectly, has a conflict of interest or is affiliated with the management of or owns a pecuniary interest in any person subject to examination under this act. This section shall not be construed to automatically preclude an examiner from being:
 - (a) An owner;

- 31 (b) An insured in a life settlement contract or insurance policy; 32 or
 - (c) A beneficiary in an insurance policy that is proposed for a life settlement contract.
 - (2) Notwithstanding the requirements of this subsection, the commissioner may retain from time to time, on an individual basis, qualified actuaries, certified public accountants, or other similar individuals who are independently practicing their professions, even though these persons may from time to time be similarly employed or retained by persons subject to examination under this act.
 - i. (1) No cause of action shall arise nor shall any liability be imposed against the commissioner, the commissioner's authorized representatives or any examiner appointed by the commissioner for any statements made or conduct performed in good faith while carrying out the provisions of this act.
- 46 (2) No cause of action shall arise, nor shall any liability be 47 imposed against any person for the act of communicating or delivering information or data to the commissioner or the commissioner's authorized representative or examiner pursuant to an examination made under this act, if the act of communication or delivery was performed in good faith and without fraudulent intent or the intent to deceive. This paragraph shall not abrogate or modify in any way any common law or statutory privilege or immunity heretofore enjoyed by any person identified in paragraph (1) of this subsection.

- (3) A person identified in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection shall be entitled to an award of attorney's fees and costs if that person is the prevailing party in a civil cause of action for libel, slander or any other relevant tort arising out of activities in carrying out the provisions of this act and the party bringing the action was not substantially justified in doing so. For purposes of this paragraph a proceeding is "substantially justified" if it had a reasonable basis in law or fact at the time that it was initiated.
- j. The commissioner may investigate suspected fraudulent life settlement acts and persons engaged in the business of life settlements.

8. (New section) a. A broker or provider licensed pursuant to this act may conduct or participate in advertisements within this State. These advertisements shall comply with the provision of chapter 30 of Title 17B of the New Jersey Statutes and all rules and regulations promulgated by the commissioner that are applicable to life insurers or to brokers and providers licensed pursuant to this

- b. Advertisements shall be accurate, truthful and not misleading in fact or by implication.

- 9. (New section) a. The provider shall provide in writing, in a separate document that is signed by the owner and provider, the following information to the owner no later than the date the life settlement contract is signed by all parties:
- (1) The fact that possible alternatives to life settlement contracts exist, including, but not limited to, accelerated benefits offered by the issuer of the life insurance policy;
- (2) The fact that some or all of the proceeds of a life settlement contract may be taxable and that assistance should be sought from a professional tax advisor;

(3) The fact that the proceeds from a life settlement contract could be subject to the claims of creditors;

- (4) The fact that receipt of proceeds from a life settlement contract may adversely affect the recipients' eligibility for public assistance or other government benefits or entitlements and that advice should be obtained from the appropriate agencies;
- (5) The fact that the owner has a right to terminate a life settlement contract within 15 days of the date it is executed by all parties and the owner has received the disclosures contained herein. Rescission, if exercised by the owner, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given, and the owner repays all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest paid on account of the provider within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded subject to repayment by the owner or the owner's estate of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the provider;
- (6) The fact that proceeds will be sent to the owner within three business days after the provider has received the insurer or group administrator's acknowledgement that ownership of the policy or interest in the certificate has been transferred and the beneficiary has been designated in accordance with the terms of the life settlement contract;
- (7) The fact that entering into a life settlement contract may cause other rights or benefits, including conversion rights and waiver of premium benefits that may exist under the policy or certificate of a group policy, to be forfeited by the owner and that assistance should be sought from a professional financial advisor;
- (8) The amount and method of calculating the compensation paid or to be paid to the broker, or any other person acting for the owner in connection with the transaction, wherein the term compensation includes anything of value paid or given;
- (9) The date by which the funds will be available to the owner and the transmitter of the funds;

- (11) The disclosure document shall contain the following language:

"All medical, financial or personal information solicited or obtained by a provider or broker about an insured, including the insured's identity or the identity of family members, a spouse or a significant other may be disclosed as necessary to effect the life settlement contract between the owner and provider. If you are asked to provide this information, you will be asked to consent to the disclosure. The information may be provided to someone who buys the policy or provides funds for the purchase. You may be asked to renew your permission to share information every two years.";

(12) Separate signed fraud warnings by the provider and broker on their respective applications and life settlement contracts as follows:

"Any person who knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance or life settlement contract is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.";

- (13) The fact that the insured may be contacted by either the provider or broker or its authorized representative for the purpose of determining the insured's health status or to verify the insured's address. This contact is limited to once every three months if the insured has a life expectancy of more than one year, and no more than once per month if the insured has a life expectancy of one year or less:
- (14) The affiliation, if any, between the provider and the issuer of the insurance policy to be settled;
- (15) That a broker represents exclusively the owner, and not the insurer or the provider or any other person, and owes a fiduciary duty to the owner, including a duty to act according to the owner's instructions and in the best interest of the owner;
- (16) The document shall include the name, address and telephone number of the provider;
- (17) The name, business address, and telephone number of the independent third party escrow agent, and the fact that the owner may inspect or receive copies of the relevant escrow or trust agreements or documents;
- (18) The fact that a change of ownership could in the future limit the insured's ability to purchase future insurance on the insured's life because there is a limit to how much coverage insurers will issue on one life;
- b. The written disclosures shall be conspicuously displayed in any life settlement contract furnished to the owner by a provider, including any affiliations or contractual arrangements between the provider and the broker.
- c. A broker shall provide the owner and the provider with at least the following disclosures no later than the date the life settlement contract is signed by all parties. The disclosures shall be conspicuously displayed in the life settlement contract or in a separate document signed by the owner and provide the following information:
- (1) The name, business address and telephone number of the broker;

- (2) A full, complete and accurate description of all the offers, counter-offers, acceptances and rejections relating to the proposed life settlement contract;
 - (3) A written disclosure of any affiliations or contractual arrangements between the broker and any person making an offer in connection with the proposed life settlement contracts;
 - (4) The name of each broker who receives compensation and the amount of compensation received by that broker, which compensation includes anything of value paid or given to the broker in connection with the life settlement contract;
 - (5) A complete reconciliation of the gross offer or bid by the provider to the net amount of proceeds or value to be received by the owner. For the purpose of this paragraph, "gross offer or bid" means the total amount or value offered by the provider for the purchase of one or more life insurance policies, including commissions and fees; and
 - d. The failure to provide the disclosures or rights described in this section shall be an unfair trade practice pursuant to section 17 of this act.

- 10. (New section) Without limiting the ability of an insurer to assess the insurability of a policy applicant and determine whether to issue the policy, and in addition to other questions an insurance carrier may lawfully pose to a life insurance applicant, insurance carriers may inquire in the application for insurance whether the proposed owner intends to pay premiums with the assistance of financing from a lender that will use the policy as collateral to support the financing.
- a. If the loan provides funds which can be used for a purpose other than paying for the premiums, costs, and expenses associated with obtaining and maintaining the life insurance policy and loan, the application shall be rejected as a violation of section 13 of this act.
- b. If the financing does not violate subsection a. of this section in this manner, the insurance carrier may make disclosures, including but not limited to the following, to the applicant and the insured, either on the application or an amendment to the application to be completed no later than the date of delivery of the policy:

"If you have entered into a loan arrangement where the policy is used as collateral, and the policy does change ownership at some point in the future in satisfaction of the loan, the following may be true:

- (1) A change of ownership could lead to a stranger owning an interest in the insured's life;
- (2) A change of ownership could in the future limit your ability to purchase future insurance on the

- insured's life because there is a limit to how much coverage insurers will issue on one life;

 (3) Should there be a change of ownership and you wish to obtain more insurance coverage on the
 - wish to obtain more insurance coverage on the insured's life in the future, the insured's higher issue age, a change in health status, or other factors may reduce the ability to obtain coverage or may result in significantly higher premiums;
 - (4) You should consult a professional advisor, since a change in ownership in satisfaction of the loan may result in tax consequences to the owner, depending on the structure of the loan."; and
 - c. In addition to the disclosures in subsection b. of this section, the insurance carrier may require the following certifications, from the applicant or the insured:
 - "(1) I have not entered into any agreement or arrangement providing for the future sale of this life insurance policy;
 - (2) My loan arrangement for this policy provides funds sufficient to pay for some or all of the premiums, costs, and expenses associated with obtaining and maintaining my life insurance policy, but I have not entered into any agreement by which I am to receive consideration in exchange for procuring this policy; and
 - (3) The borrower has an insurable interest in the insured."

- 11. (New section) a. A provider entering into a life settlement contract with any owner of a policy, wherein the insured is terminally or chronically ill, shall first obtain:
- (1) If the owner is the insured, a written statement from a licensed attending physician that the owner is of sound mind and under no constraint or undue influence to enter into a life settlement contract; and
- (2) A document in which the insured consents to the release of his medical records to a provider, broker, or insurance producer and, if the policy was issued less than two years from the date of application for a life settlement contract, to the insurance company that issued the policy.
- b. The insurer shall respond to a request for verification of coverage submitted by a provider, broker, or life insurance producer not later than 30 calendar days after the date the request is received. The request for verification of coverage shall be made on a form approved by the commissioner. The insurer shall complete and issue the verification of coverage or indicate in which respects it is unable to respond. In its response, the insurer shall indicate whether, based on the medical evidence and documents provided, the insurer intends to pursue an investigation at that time regarding the validity of the insurance contract.

- c. Before or at the time of execution of the life settlement contract, the provider shall obtain a witnessed document in which the owner consents to the settlement contract, represents that the owner has a full and complete understanding of the settlement contract, that the owner has a full and complete understanding of the benefits of the policy, acknowledges that the owner is entering into the settlement contract freely and voluntarily, and, for persons with a terminal or chronic illness or condition, acknowledges that the insured has a terminal or chronic illness and that the terminal or chronic illness or condition was diagnosed after the policy was issued.
- d. The insurer shall not unreasonably delay effecting change of ownership or beneficiary with any life settlement contract lawfully entered into in this State or with a resident of this State.
- e. If a settlement broker or life insurance producer performs any of these activities required of the provider, the provider is deemed to have fulfilled the requirements of this section.
- f. If a broker performs those verification of coverage activities required of the provider, the provider is deemed to have fulfilled the requirements of subsection a. of section 9 of this act.
- g. Within 20 days after an owner executes the life settlement contract, the provider shall give written notice to the insurer that issued that insurance policy that the policy has become subject to a life settlement contract. The notice shall be accompanied by the documents required by subsection b. of section 10 of this act.
- h. All medical information solicited or obtained by any licensee shall be subject to the applicable provision of State law relating to confidentiality of medical information, if not otherwise provided in this act.
- i. All life settlement contracts entered into in this State shall provide that the owner may rescind the contract on or before the 15th day after the date it is executed by all parties to the contract. Rescission, if exercised by the owner, is effective only if both notice of the rescission is given, and the owner repays all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest paid on account of the provider within the rescission period. If the insured dies during the rescission period, the contract shall be deemed to have been rescinded subject to repayment by the owner or the owner's estate of all proceeds and any premiums, loans, and loan interest to the provider.
- j. Within three business days after receipt from the owner of documents to effect the transfer of the insurance policy, the provider shall pay the proceeds of the settlement to an escrow or trust account managed by a trustee or escrow agent in a state or federally chartered financial institution pending acknowledgement of the transfer by the issuer of the policy. The trustee or escrow agent shall be required to transfer the proceeds due to the owner within three business days of acknowledgement of the transfer from the insurer.

- k. Failure to tender the life settlement contract proceeds to the owner by the date disclosed to the owner renders the contract voidable by the owner for lack of consideration until the time the proceeds are tendered to and accepted by the owner. A failure to give written notice of the right of rescission hereunder shall toll the right of rescission until 30 days after the written notice of the right of rescission has been given.
- l. Any fee paid by a provider, party, individual, or an owner to a broker in exchange for services provided to the owner pertaining to a life settlement contract shall be computed as a percentage of the offer obtained, not the face value of the policy. Nothing in this section shall be construed as prohibiting a broker from reducing that broker's fee below this percentage if the broker so chooses.
- m. The broker shall disclose to the owner anything of value paid or given to a broker, which relate to a life settlement contract.
- n. No person, at any time prior to, or at the time of, the application for, or issuance of, a policy, or during a two-year period commencing with the date of issuance of the policy, shall enter into a life settlement contract regardless of the date the compensation is to be provided and regardless of the date the assignment, transfer, sale, devise, bequest or surrender of the policy is to occur. This prohibition shall not apply if the owner certifies to the provider that:
- (1) The policy was issued upon the owner's exercise of conversion rights arising out of a group or individual policy, if the total of the time covered under the conversion policy plus the time covered under the prior policy is at least 24 months. The time covered under a group policy shall be calculated without regard to a change in insurance carriers, so long as the coverage has been continuous and under the same group sponsorship; or
- (2) The owner submits independent evidence to the provider that one or more of the following conditions have been met within the two-year period:
 - (a) The owner or insured is terminally or chronically ill;
- (b) The owner or insured disposes of his ownership interests in a closely held corporation, pursuant to the terms of a buyout or other similar agreement in effect at the time the insurance policy was initially issued;
- (c) The owner's spouse dies;
- (d) The owner divorces his or her spouse;
- 45 (e) The owner retires from full-time employment;

- (f) The owner becomes physically or mentally disabled and a physician determines that the disability prevents the owner from maintaining full-time employment; or
- (g) A final order, judgment or decree is entered by a court of competent jurisdiction, on the application of a creditor of the owner, adjudicating the owner bankrupt or insolvent, or approving a petition seeking reorganization of the owner or appointing a receiver, trustee or liquidator to all or a substantial part of the owner's assets;
- (3) Copies of the independent evidence required by paragraph (2) of this subsection shall be submitted to the insurer when the provider submits a request to the insurer for verification of coverage. The copies shall be accompanied by a letter of attestation from the provider that the copies are true and correct copies of the documents received by the provider. Nothing in this section shall prohibit an insurer from exercising its right to contest the validity of any policy;
- (4) If the provider submits to the insurer a copy of independent evidence provided for in item subparagraph (a) of paragraph (2) of this subsection, when the provider submits a request to the insurer to effect the transfer of the policy to the provider, the copy is deemed to establish that the settlement contract satisfies the requirements of this section.

12. (New section) a. If there is more than one owner on a single policy, and the owners are residents of different states, the life settlement contract shall be governed by the law of the state in which the owner having the largest percentage ownership resides or, if the owners hold equal ownership, the state of residence of one owner agreed upon in writing by all of the owners. The law of the state of the insured shall govern in the event that equal owners fail to agree in writing upon a state of residence for jurisdictional purposes.

b. A provider from this State who enters into a life settlement contract with an owner who is a resident of another state that has enacted statutes or adopted regulations governing a life settlement contract shall be governed in the effectuation of that life settlement contract by the statutes and regulations of the owner's state of residence. If the state in which the owner is a resident has not enacted statutes or regulations governing life settlement contracts, the provider shall give the owner notice that neither state regulates the transaction upon which he or she is entering. For transactions in those states, however, the provider shall maintain all records required if the transactions were executed in the state of residence. The forms used in those states need not be approved by the department.

c. If there is a conflict in the laws that apply to an owner and a purchaser in any individual transaction, the laws of the state that apply to the owner shall take precedence and the provider shall comply with those laws.

STATEMENT

This bill, the "Life Settlements Act," regulates the business of life settlements in this State, and as part of that regulation, prohibits stranger-originated life insurance or "STOLI."

A life settlement is a written agreement for the sale or transfer of an existing life insurance policy, while the insured or owner is still alive, for an amount less than the expected death benefit of the policy, but for more than the cash surrender value, or any accelerated death benefit available at that time. Stranger-originated life insurance, or STOLI, is a practice in which a life insurance policy is purchased for the benefit of a third party investor who, at the time of policy origination, has no insurable interest in the life of the insured. Insurable interest, under long standing insurance law, generally requires that a person applying for a life insurance policy have an interest in the continued life of the insured, usually because the insured is a blood relative or because an economic relationship exists between the parties. Thus, STOLI transactions offend traditional concepts of life insurance, and may in fact involve fraud perpetrated against the insured, often a senior citizen, and the life insurer.

Life settlements have also sometimes been referred to as "viatical settlements." The bill also repeals the existing "Viatical Settlements Act," P.L.2005, c.229 (C.17B:30B-1 et seq.) and replaces it with this new statutory scheme.

The bill defines a "life settlement contract" as a written agreement between a provider and an owner of a life insurance policy, establishing the terms of compensation. "Stranger-originated life insurance" or "STOLI" is defined as an act or practice to initiate the issuance of a life insurance policy for the benefit of a third party investor who has no insurable interest in the life of the insured at the time of policy origination.

The bill establishes licensing requirements for life settlement brokers and providers. A broker negotiates life settlement contracts between owners or insureds, and providers. A provider is the person who is "buying" the policy and who enters into the life settlement contract with the owner.

Life insurance producers licensed with a life insurance line of authority in this State are considered to meet the licensing qualifications under the bill to operate as a broker. Brokers, other than life insurance producers, must complete 15 hours of training relating to life settlements on a biennial basis. A viatical settlement provider licensed and operating pursuant to the "Viatical Settlements Act" immediately prior to the effective date of this bill may continue to do so pending approval or disapproval of an application for a license pursuant to this bill.

Life settlement contract forms to be used in the State must be filed with and approved by the Commissioner of Banking and Insurance, in a manner consistent with that used for life insurance forms.

The bill requires life settlement providers to file an annual statement with the commissioner which includes the total number, aggregate face amount, and life settlement proceeds of policies settled during the preceding calendar year, for all polices settled within five years of policy issuance in which the insured is a resident of this State. These reporting requirements are intended to enable regulators to identify and stop STOLI transactions.

The commissioner is authorized to investigate the business of any licensee or licensee applicant, and may issue subpoenas, administer oaths and examine persons under oath as to any matter pertinent to an examination.

Brokers and producers may advertise, so long as these advertisements are accurate, truthful and not misleading. The marketing of a life insurance policy for the sole purpose of settling the policy is prohibited, as is the use of words such as "free" or "no cost" in the marketing of life insurance policies.

The bill requires certain disclosures concerning life settlement contracts no later than the date the contract is signed. These include disclosures by the provider to the owner/insured as to the availability of any alternatives to a life settlement allowing for access to a cash payout from the policy, possible tax ramifications, and other consequences of entering into a life settlement. Brokers are required to provide owners and providers with disclosures concerning all offers, acceptances and rejections relating to the proposed life settlement, any affiliation or contractual arrangement between the broker and any and all providers, and a reconciliation of the transaction, including commissions and fees. The bill also allows insurers to inquire in an application for life insurance as to whether the proposed owner intends to pay premiums with the assistance of financing from a lender that will use the policy as collateral to support the financing of the policy. In this way, the proposed owner's disclosures can also become a tool in detecting fraudulent life settlement practices, including STOLI.

The bill generally prohibits entering into a life settlement contract during the two-year period after the date of issuance of a life insurance policy except under certain circumstances, such as the result of the exercise of conversion rights from another policy, or if the owner is terminally ill, the owner's spouse dies, the owner divorces, or certain other similar circumstances.

The bill provides that the owner may terminate a life settlement contract within 15 days of the date of execution of the contract and receipt of all disclosures and requires the provider to pay the proceeds of the settlement to an escrow or trust account within three business days after receipt of documents necessary to effect the transfer of the policy.

The bill defines a fraudulent life settlement act and enumerates various practices that constitute fraudulent life settlement acts. It establishes civil penalties for violations, as well as providing for injunctions, and suspension and revocation of licenses, as appropriate. In addition, a violation of the bill shall also be considered an unfair trade practice and be subject to the penalties established therefor. A civil action for damages may be maintained by any person damaged as the result of a violation of the bill and in the event of a willful violation, the court may award statutory damages in an amount up to three times of the actual damage award.

Through these licensing and reporting requirements, the disclosures on the part of brokers, providers and owners, and its investigation and enforcement provisions, the bill provides new measures to detect and prevent STOLI. At the same time, it creates
