STATEMENT

32 This bill, designated as “Patrick’s Law,” increases to crimes of 33 the fourth degree, the offenses of depriving an animal of necessary 34 sustenance, or abusing an animal, and it increases the grade of these 35 offenses to crimes of the third degree if the animal dies as a result 36 of these acts. The civil penalty for these offenses would also be 37 increased under the bill to a fine of $1,000 to $3,000 for a first 38 offense, and $3,000 to $5,000 for a second or subsequent offense.

39 The bill would additionally increase the criminal and civil 40 penalties for the following offenses: 1) inflicting unnecessary
41 cruelty upon a living animal or creature, by any direct or indirect
42 means, including but not limited to through the use of another living 43 animal or creature; 2) unnecessarily failing to provide a living 44 animal or creature of which the person has charge either as an 45 owner or otherwise with proper food, drink, shelter or protection 46 from the weather; or 3) leaving it unattended in a vehicle under 47 inhumane conditions adverse to the health or welfare of the living 48 animal or creature. The criminal penalty would be increased to a

1 fine of not less than $500 nor more than $2,000, or imprisonment
2 for a term of not more than six months, or both, at the discretion of 3 the court. If an animal is needlessly killed or dies as a result of one 4 of these violations, or the person has a prior conviction for a 5 violation of this provision, the person would be guilty of a crime of 6 the fourth degree. The civil penalty recoverable under R.S.4:22-26
7 would be increased to a fine of $500 to $2,000.

8 Furthermore, the bill requires that court-ordered restitution
9 include the monetary cost of replacing the animal if it died or had to 10 be euthanized because of the extent of its injuries, in addition to 11 reimbursement of any costs for food, drink, shelter, or veterinary 12 care or treatment, or other costs. The bill clarifies that the 13 reimbursement would be for costs incurred by the owner of the 14 animal, if the owner is not the person committing the act of cruelty.

15 This bill is being introduced in response to the treatment of 16 Patrick, a pit bull in Newark, which after being starved to an 17 extremely emaciated condition, was placed in a garbage bag, and 18 dropped down a garbage chute in an apartment complex in that city.
19 The dog is now being cared for and recuperating after a
20 maintenance person in the building collecting garbage noticed
21 movement in one of the garbage bags and found the dog still alive
22 inside.
