STATEMENT

29

30 This bill sets forth grounds for the lawful use of deadly force
31 against black bears.

32 Under the provisions of the bill, a person may use deadly force if 33 the black bear (1) is attacking a person or domesticated animal, (2)
34 is entering or has entered a dwelling or (3) is within 50 feet of a
35 dwelling and, based upon the black bear's actions or behavior, the 36 person reasonably believes that the use of deadly force is necessary
37 to protect himself or another from a substantial danger of bodily
38 harm.

39 The restrictions set forth in the bill do not apply to licensed
40 hunters during any authorized hunting season.

41 Similarly, the bill's provisions do not apply to State or local law
42 enforcement officers or to duly authorized personnel of the New 43 Jersey Division of Fish and Wildlife who, in the course of 44 performing their official duties, must use deadly force to dispatch
45 any injured or dangerous black bear.
