39 STATEMENT

40
41 This bill disallows tax deductions under the corporation business
42 tax and the gross income tax for punitive damages paid or incurred 43 in connection with a judgment in or settlement of a legal action and 44 includes in a taxpayer's taxable income the amount paid to, or on 45 behalf of, the taxpayer as insurance or otherwise by reason of the 46 taxpayer's liability or agreement to pay punitive damages.

47 Under current law, a corporation or an individual business owner 48 may deduct the cost of court-ordered punitive damages as an

1 “ordinary business expense.” This tax loophole allows companies
2 to wreak horrible damage to public assets and private property,
3 destroying lives and livelihoods, and write it off as a cost of doing 4 business.

5 This bill eliminates that tax break, and requires corporations 6 risking environmental destruction to face the true costs of their 7 actions.
