24 This bill requires a public utility to, upon arriving at a rate
25 settlement agreement, the approval of which would increase 26 individual rates, tolls, charges, or schedules of a public utility, 27 notify customers in the service area affected by the settlement by 28 direct mail prior to the final settlement decision before the Board of 29 Public Utilities. The notification shall provide an explanation of the 30 proposed settlement, including a detailed justification of the basis 31 for the proposed settlement.
