ASSEMBLY COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT AND AFFAIRS COMMITTEE

STATEMENT TO

ASSEMBLY, No. 2063

STATE OF NEW JERSEY

DATED: DECEMBER 14, 2020

The Assembly Community Development and Affairs Committee reports favorably Assembly Bill No. 2063.

This bill would require the Commissioner of Community Affairs, in consultation with the Commissioner of Corrections, to promulgate regulations establishing standards for publicly-supported transitional housing for former prisoners who are reentering the community. The standards are based on core features of the Fortune Academy, a model prisoner reentry transitional housing program in New York City. The regulations would help former prisoners successfully transition and reintegrate back into their communities.

The regulations would have to include standards for the following:

(1) ensuring the physical safety of the residents;

(2) providing emergency and longer-term housing;

(3) counseling and support services to assist residents successfully transition back into the community, including substance abuse treatment, medical services, independent living skills training, education, career development, family services, and recreation;

(4) personalized care management, including targeted care for residents who served long terms of incarceration; and

(5) assisting residents obtain permanent housing.

This bill was pre-filed for introduction in the 2020-2021 session pending technical review. As reported, the bill includes the changes required by technical review, which has been performed.
