18 STATEMENT

20 This bill provides that an institution of higher education in the 21 State, which offers child care services to students enrolled in the 22 institution, may not charge a student who receives a voucher under 23 the New Jersey Cares for Kids (NJCK) Program an amount for the 24 child care services that exceeds the amount of the program voucher.

25 The NJCK Program, under regulations promulgated by the 26 Commissioner of Human Services at N.J.A.C.10:15-5.1 et seq., 27 provides eligible families with necessary child care services through 28 the Child Care Resource & Referral Agency in the county where the 29 family resides. A family is eligible for the program if the family 30 meets certain income guidelines.
