19 STATEMENT

20

21 This bill would exempt parking spaces designated for persons 22 with a disability from meters or similar user fees. Under the 23 provisions of this bill, the State, a county, or a municipality is 24 prohibited from installing a parking meter or charging a fee for the 25 use of a properly designated parking space reserved for a person
26 with a disability. If a meter has already been installed, the State, a 27 county, or a municipality would be required to indicate that no
28 payment is necessary for the use of the spot.
