5. Section 2 of P.L.2001, c.167 (C.2C:7-13) is amended to read as follows:

2. a. Pursuant to the provisions of this section, the Superintendent of State Police shall develop and maintain a system for making certain information in the central registry established pursuant to subsection d. of section 4 of P.L.1994, c.133 (C.2C:7-4) publicly available by means of electronic Internet technology.

b. The public may, without limitation, obtain access to the Internet registry to view an individual registration record, any part of, or the entire Internet registry concerning all offenders:

(1) whose risk of re-offense is high;

(2) whose risk of re-offense is moderate or low and whose conduct was found to be characterized by a pattern of repetitive, compulsive behavior pursuant to the provisions of N.J.S.2C:47-3; or

(3) for whom the court has ordered notification in accordance with paragraph (3) of subsection c. of section 3 of P.L.1994, c.128 (C.2C:7-8), regardless of the age of the offender.

c. Except as provided in subsection d. of this section, the public may, without limitation, obtain access to the Internet registry to view an individual registration record, any part of, or the entire Internet registry concerning offenders whose risk of re-offense is moderate and for whom the court has ordered notification in accordance with paragraph (2) of subsection c. of section 3 of P.L.1994, c.128 (C.2C:7-8).

d. The individual registration record of an offender whose risk of re-offense has been determined to be moderate and for whom the court has ordered notification in accordance with paragraph (2) of subsection c. of section 3 of P.L.1994, c.128 (C.2C:7-8) shall not be made available to the public on the Internet registry if the sole sex offense committed by the offender which renders him subject to the requirements of P.L.1994, c.133 (C.2C:7-1 et seq.) is one of the following:

(1) An adjudication of delinquency for any sex offense as defined in subsection b. of section 2 of P.L.1994, c.133 (C.2C:7-2);

(2) A conviction or acquittal by reason of insanity for a violation of N.J.S.2C:14-2 or N.J.S.2C:14-3 under circumstances in which the offender was related to the victim by blood or affinity to the third degree or was a resource family parent, a guardian, or stood in loco parentis within the household; or

e. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph d. of this subsection, the individual registration record of an offender to whom an exception enumerated in paragraph (1), (2) or (3) of subsection d. of this section applies shall be made available to the public on the Internet registry if the offender's conduct was characterized by a pattern of repetitive, compulsive behavior, or the State establishes by clear and convincing evidence that, given the particular facts and circumstances of the offense and the characteristics and propensities of the offender, the risk to the general public posed by the offender is substantially similar to that posed by offenders whose risk of re-offense is moderate and who do not qualify under the enumerated exceptions.

f. Unless the offender's conduct was characterized by a pattern of repetitive, compulsive behavior, the individual registration records of offenders whose risk of re-offense is low or of offenders whose risk of re-offense is moderate but for whom the court has not ordered notification in accordance with paragraph (2) of subsection c. of section 3 of P.L.1994, c.128 (C.2C:7-8) shall not be available to the public on the Internet registry.

g. moderate or high; the offender's age, race, sex, date of birth, height, weight, hair, eye color and any distinguishing scars or tattoos; all known Internet identifiers of the offender; a photograph of the offender and the date on which the photograph was entered into the registry; the make, model, color, year and license plate number of any vehicle operated by the offender; and the street address, zip code, municipality and county in which the offender resides.

6. This act shall take effect on the first day of the seventh month next following enactment.

STATEMENT

This bill requires sex offenders to report the use of Internet identifiers and notify law enforcement of any name change.

Under current law, a person required to register under "Megan's Law," P.L.1994, c.133 (C.2C:7-1 et al.) is to provide the appropriate law enforcement agency with information as to whether the person has routine access to or use of a computer or any other device with Internet capability. The bill would additionally require the person to provide all Internet identifiers the person uses. An "Internet identifier" is defined to include all electronic mail, chat, instant message, social networking, application, software, or similar names used for Internet communication. An "Internet identifier" excludes all birthdates, social security numbers, and personal identification or PIN numbers unless disclosed voluntarily by the person.

The bill further requires a person wishing to assume another name to specify whether he or she was charged with or convicted of a sex offense. If so, the clerk of the court is required to forward a copy of the judgment to the appropriate registering agency, as set forth under "Megan's Law."

Upon a change of name by reason of marriage or other legal process, a person is required to notify the appropriate law enforcement agency no less than 10 days after that name change. A person who fails to notify the appropriate law enforcement agency would be guilty of a crime of the third degree. A crime of the third degree carries a penalty of three to five years imprisonment, a fine of up to $15,000, or both.

Under the bill's provisions, information about a registered offender made available on the Internet registry would include all known Internet identifiers of the offender and the current and any former name the offender has used or under which the offender may be or may have been known.
