27 b. The Department of Education shall establish a flexible 28 instructional day program. The department shall issue guidance and 39 technology will be used by the school district, the procedure shall 40 include information regarding accommodations for students and

33 STATEMENT

34
35 This bill requires the Department of Education to establish a 36 flexible instructional day program. Under a flexible instructional 37 day program a school district is permitted to offer up to five flexible 38 instructional days which are defined in the bill as:

39 (1) days which fulfill the 180-day school year requirement that 40 districts must meet in order to receive State aid;

41 (2) days on which the district must close the schools of the 42 district due to inclement weather or another type of emergency; and

43 (3) days on which instruction is provided to students at home, 44 through the use of technology or some other method identified by 45 the school district.

46 A school district seeking to participate in the program must 47 submit an application to the department for its approval. The 48 application form will include:

- 1 • the procedure for a school district to notify students,
2 parents, and teaching staff members that a flexible 3 instructional day is instituted;
- 4 • the procedure for instituting a flexible instructional day,
5 including whether the school district will use technology.
6 If technology will be used by the school district, the 7 procedure must include information regarding 8 accommodations for students and teaching staff members
9 without Internet access at home or an insufficient amount 10 of technology for the number of children in the 11 household;
- 12 • the responsibilities of teaching staff members and 13 students during a flexible instructional day;
- 14 • the procedure for identifying student participation during 15 a flexible instructional day for attendance purposes;
- 16 • assurance of compliance with the “Individuals with 17 Disabilities Education Act,” during a flexible 18 instructional day; and
- 19 • any additional information that the department deems 20 necessary.

21 If the department approves a district’s initial application or a 22 renewal application, the approval will be valid for a period of three 23 years. Under the provisions of the bill, the department will issue an 24 annual survey on or before April 30 to every school district that is 25 participating in a flexible instructional day program. The survey 26 will provide information to the department regarding the efficacy of 27 the program.

28 The bill states that nothing in the bill’s provisions may be 29 construed to supersede or preempt the rights, remedies, and 30 procedures afforded to teaching staff members or a collective 31 bargaining unit under federal or State law or any provision of a 32 collective bargaining agreement entered into by the school district.
