27 STATEMENT

28

29 This bill requires the Department of Health (department) to 30 develop a mobile senior citizen assistance program.

31 Under the bill, the department is to develop and implement a 32 mobile senior citizen assistance program. The program is to consist 33 of the periodic deployment of staffed vehicles to locations at or near 34 nursing homes and senior citizen centers, events, gatherings, and 35 residences in this State to provide general assistance to senior 36 citizens which is to include, but is not to be limited to, assistance 37 with: completing applications, correspondence, food services,
38 health care services, Internet access and use, legal services, making 39 appointments, tax services, transportation, and the use of computers 40 and mobile devices.

41 This bill is based on the Ocean County MASH Unit— a program
42 implemented by the Ocean County Board of Commissioners to help
43 seniors in that county through the use of vehicles staffed by Ocean
44 County Senior Services.
