This bill, the “New Jersey Insurance Fair Conduct Act,” establishes a private cause of action for first-party claimants regarding certain unfair or unreasonable practices by their insurer.

The bill defines “insurer” to mean any individual, corporation, association, partnership or other legal entity which issues, executes, renews or delivers an insurance policy in this State, or which is responsible for determining claims made under the policy. Under the bill, the term “insurer” does not include an insurance producer as defined by P.L.2001, c.210 (C.17:22A-28) or a public entity.

A final party claimant means an individual injured in a motor vehicle accident and entitled to the uninsured or underinsured motorist coverage of an insurance policy asserting an entitlement to benefits owed directly to or on behalf of an insured under that policy.

Pursuant to the bill, a claimant may file a civil action in a court of competent jurisdiction against its automobile insurer for:

1. an unreasonable delay or unreasonable denial of a claim for payment of benefits under an insurance policy; or

Section 4 of P.L.1947, c.379 (C.17:29B-4) defines certain activities as unfair methods of competition and unfair and deceptive acts or practices in the business of insurance including, among other things, unfair claim settlement practices and failure to maintain complaint handling procedures.

The bill provides that, in any action filed pursuant to the bill, the claimant shall not be required to prove that the insurer’s actions were of such a frequency as to indicate a general business practice. The bill also provides that, upon establishing that a violation of the provisions of the bill has occurred, the claimant shall be entitled to:

1. actual damages caused by the violation including, but not limited to, actual trial verdicts; and
2. prejudgment interest, reasonable attorney’s fees, and all reasonable litigation expenses.
