10 '3. N.J.S.18A:18A-45 is amended to read as follows:

11 18A:18A-45. Manner and method of sale. Any board of education 12 may, by resolution and by sealed bid or public auction, authorize the 13 sale of its personal property not needed for school purposes.

14 a. If the estimated fair value of the property to be sold exceeds [15
15 percent of] the bid threshold in any one sale and it is neither livestock 16 nor perishable goods, it shall be sold at public sale to the highest 17 bidder.

18 b. Notice of the date, time and place of the public sale, together
19 with a description of the items to be sold and the conditions of sale,
20 shall be published once in an official newspaper. Such sale shall be 21 held not less than seven nor more than 14 days after the publication of 22 the notice thereof.

23 c. Personal property may be sold to the United States, the State of 24 New Jersey, another board of education, any body politic, any foreign 25 nation which has diplomatic relations with the United States, or any 26 governmental unit in these United States by private sale without 27 advertising for bids.

28 d. If no bids are received the property may then be sold at private 29 sale without further publication or notice thereof, but in no event at 30 less than the estimated fair value; or the board of education may if it so 31 elect, reoffer the property at public sale. As used herein, "estimated 32 fair value" means the market value of the property between a willing 33 seller and a willing buyer less the cost to the board of education to 34 continue storage or maintenance of any personal property not needed
35 for school purposes to be sold pursuant to this section.

36 e. A board of education may reject all bids if it determines such 37 rejection to be in the public interest. In any case in which the board of 38 education has rejected all bids, it may readvertise such personal
39 property for a subsequent public sale. If it elects to reject all bids at a 40 second public sale, pursuant to this section, it may then sell such 41 personal property without further publication or notice thereof at 42 private sale, provided that in no event shall the negotiated price at 43 private sale be less than the highest price of any bid rejected at the 44 preceding two public sales and provided further that in no event shall 45 the terms or conditions of sale be changed or amended.

1 f. (1) If the estimated fair value of the property to be sold is no
2 less than 15 percent of the bid threshold, but no greater than the bid
3 threshold, the board of education may, by resolution, authorize the 4 property to be sold at private sale so long as the purchasing agent
5 solicits at least two competitive offers to purchase the property, if it is 6 practicable to solicit competitive offers. The property shall be sold to 7 the party with the highest offer. The purchasing agent shall retain the 8 record of the offer solicitation and shall include a copy of the record
9 with the sale documentation. If the purchasing agent determines that it 10 is impracticable to solicit at least two competitive offers, the 11 determination and reasoning in support of the purchasing agent's
12 decision shall be memorialized in writing.

13 (2) If the estimated fair value of the property to be sold does not 14 exceed 15 percent of the applicable bid threshold 【established
15 pursuant to subsection a. of this section】 in any one sale or is either 16 livestock or perishable goods, 【it】 the board of education may, by 17 resolution, authorize the property to be sold at private sale without 18 advertising for bids or the solicitation of competitive offers, or 19 authorize donation of the property to the United States, the State of 20 New Jersey, another board of education, any body politic, any foreign 21 nation which has diplomatic relations with the United States, any 22 governmental unit in the United States, or a non-profit corporation so 23 long as the property is not used for a political, partisan, sectarian, 24 denominational, or religious purpose. The board of education may not 25 donate property used to provide federal or State nonpublic services to 26 nonpublic schools receiving services from the board of education.

27 g. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, by resolution of 28 the board of education, a purchasing agent may include the sale of 29 personal property no longer needed for school purposes as part of 30 specifications to offset the price of a new purchase.¹

32

33 ¹4. Section 36 of P.L.1971, c.198 (C.40A:11-36) is amended to 34 read as follows:

35 36. Any contracting unit by resolution of its governing body may 36 authorize by sealed bid or public auction the sale of its personal 37 property not needed for public use.

38 (1) If the estimated fair value of the property to be sold exceeds 39 【15 percent of】 the bid threshold in any one sale and it is neither 40 livestock nor perishable goods, it shall be sold at public sale to the 41 highest bidder.

42 (2) The contracting unit need not advertise for bids when it makes 43 any such sale to the United States, the State of New Jersey, another 44 contracting unit, any body politic to which it contributes tax raised 45 funds, any foreign nation which has diplomatic relations with the 46 United States, or any governmental unit in the United States.

1 (3) Notice of the date, time and place of the public sale together
2 with a description of the items to be sold and the conditions of sale
3 shall be published in an official newspaper. Such sale shall be held not 4 less than seven nor more than 14 days after the latest publication of the 5 notice thereof.

6 (4) If no bids are received the property may then be sold at private 7 sale without further publication or notice thereof, but in no event at 8 less than the estimated fair value; or the contracting unit may if it so 9 elects reoffer the property at public sale. As used herein, "estimated 10 fair value" means the market value of the property between a willing 11 seller and a willing buyer less the cost to the contracting unit to 12 continue storage or maintenance of any personal property not needed
13 for public use to be sold pursuant to this section.

14 (5) A contracting unit may reject all bids if it determines such 15 rejection to be in the public interest. In any case in which the 16 contracting unit has rejected all bids, it may readvertise such personal
17 property for a subsequent public sale. If it elects to reject all bids at a 18 second public sale, pursuant to this section, it may then sell such 19 personal property without further publication or notice thereof at 20 private sale, provided that in no event shall the negotiated price at 21 private sale be less than the highest price of any bid rejected at the
22 preceding two public sales and provided further that in no event shall 23 the terms or conditions of sale be changed or amended.

24 (6) (a) If the estimated fair value of the property to be sold is no
25 less than 15 percent of the bid threshold, but no greater than the bid 26 threshold, the governing body may, by resolution, authorize the 27 property to be sold at private sale so long as the contracting agent
28 solicits at least two competitive offers to purchase the property, if it is 29 practicable to solicit competitive offers. The property shall be sold to 30 the party with the highest offer. The contracting agent shall retain the 31 record of the offer solicitation and shall include a copy of the record
32 with the sale documentation. If the contracting agent determines that it
34 determination and reasoning in support of the purchasing agent's
35 decision shall be memorialized in writing.

36 (b) If the estimated fair value of the property to be sold does not 37 exceed 15 percent of the applicable bid threshold in any one sale or is 38 either livestock or perishable goods, [it] the governing body may, by 39 resolution, authorize the property to be sold at private sale without 40 advertising for bids or soliciting competitive offers, or authorize 41 donation of the property to the United States, the State of New Jersey, 42 another contracting unit, any body politic to which it contributes tax 43 raised funds, any foreign nation which has diplomatic relations with 44 the United States, any governmental unit in the United States, or a 45 non-profit corporation so long as the property is not used for a 46 political, partisan, sectarian, denominational, or religious purpose.

1 (7) Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, by resolution of 2 the governing body, a contracting agent may include the sale of 3 personal property no longer needed for public use as part of
4 specifications to offset the price of a new purchase.¹
