STATEMENT

5

6 This joint resolution designates October 1 of each year as “New 7 Jersey Diner Day”.

8 New Jersey is known as the “Diner Capital of the World”. The 9 history of diners in New Jersey started during the automobile
10 industry’s rise in the 1910s and 1920s wherein New Jersey diners
11 began as portable wooden food wagons. Jerry O’Mahony and his 12 brother of Bayonne, New Jersey, owned several lunch wagons that 13 operated throughout Hudson, County, New Jersey. The O’Mahony
14 brothers hired a carpenter to build their own food wagon and sold it
15 to a restaurant entrepreneur. In the decades that followed, nearly all 16 of the major United States diner builders, including Jerry 17 O’Mahony Inc., started operating in New Jersey. Due to New 18 Jersey’s location between Philadelphia and New York City, New 19 Jersey built highly developed transportation systems and road
20 networks for commuters traveling between the two metropolitan 21 hubs. As busy commuters traveled between these three states, New 22 Jersey’s 24-hour diners became destinations to eat and rest.
23 Travelers and locals alike sought out these diners for an affordable,
24 convenient meal. New Jersey is home to approximately 525 diners, 25 the most diners in any state. Diners play an important role in New 26 Jersey’s economy and culture and should be celebrated.
