23 Legislature as this bill), still in effect on that effective date.

24 The adjustments in benefits pursuant to the amendment of section

30 P.L. , c. (pending before the Legislature as this bill), shall be 31 granted a retroactive payment based upon the difference between the 32 benefit the individual would have received if the adjustment made 33 pursuant to section 5 of this act had been applicable at the date of 34 entitlement and the benefit that such individual received from the date
35 of entitlement to the effective date of this act, P.L. , c. (pending

STATEMENT

6 This bill increases to 70 percent of compensation the accidental
7 death benefit payable to the surviving spouse or surviving child or 8 children of a deceased law enforcement officer, correction officer,
9 or firefighter who was a member of the Public Employees'
10 Retirement System (PERS) and ineligible for membership in the 11 Police and Firemen's Retirement System (PFRS). This bill also 12 changes the definition of child with respect to those members. The 13 bill permits payment of an accidental death benefit to a surviving 14 beneficiary of a retirant of the PFRS or a retirant of the PERS who 15 was ineligible for membership in the PFRS if the accident caused 16 the death of the retirant. The bill also grants eligibility for the death
17 benefit to a person determined by the federal Bureau of Justice
18 Assistance to be eligible to receive a death benefit under the federal 19 "Public Safety Officers' Benefits Act of 1976" based upon the death
20 of a law enforcement officer, correction officer, or firefighter
21 member or retirant of the PERS who was ineligible for membership
22 in the PFRS or member or retirant of the PFRS.

23 Under current law, an accidental death benefit under PERS is 24 payable when a member dies accidentally in the actual performance
25 of duty, or in active service in the reserve component of the Armed 26 Forces of the United States or the National Guard in a federal active 27 duty status, and not as the result of his or her willful negligence.
28 The member's widow or widower is entitled to a pension of 50
29 percent of the member's compensation for use by him or her and the 30 children of the deceased member. This payment continues during 31 his or her widowhood. If there is no surviving widow or widower, 32 or in case the widow or widower dies or remarries, 20 percent of 33 that compensation is payable to one surviving child, 35 percent to 34 two surviving children in equal shares, and 50 percent to three or 35 more surviving children in equal shares.

36 With respect to all law enforcement officers, correction officers, 37 or firefighters in PERS, this bill increases to 70 percent of the 38 member's compensation the accidental death benefit payable to the 39 surviving spouse of the member or retirant, and to the same amount 40 the benefit payable to the member's or retirant's surviving child or 41 children when there is no surviving spouse. This provision will 42 mirror the amounts as provided in the PFRS.

43 This bill also changes the definition of child with respect to all 44 law enforcement officers, correction officers, and firefighters in 45 PERS. Currently, in that retirement system, "child" is defined as a 46 deceased member's unmarried child either (a) under the age of 18 or 47 (b) of any age who, at the time of the member's death, is disabled 48 because of an intellectual disability or physical incapacity, is unable

1 to do any substantial, gainful work because of the impairment and 2 the impairment has lasted or can be expected to last for a
3 continuous period of not less than 12 months, as affirmed by the 4 medical board. For those officers and firefighters in PERS, this bill
5 adds to this definition a member's or retirant's child who is (c) 18
6 years of age or older and enrolled in a secondary school, or (d)
7 under the age of 24 and enrolled in a degree program in an 8 institution of higher education for at least 12 credit hours in each 9 semester, provided that the member or retirant died as a result of an 10 accident met in the actual performance of duty at some definite time 11 and place, and the death was not the result of the member's or 12 retirant's willful misconduct. This definition will be the same as the 13 definition of child in the PFRS, as amended to include retirants.

14 Finally, the bill provides that a person determined by the federal 15 Bureau of Justice Assistance to be eligible to receive a death benefit
16 under the federal "Public Safety Officers' Benefits Act of 1976"
17 (PSOB) based upon the death of a law enforcement officer,
18 correction officer, or firefighter member or retirant in the PERS
19 who was ineligible for membership in the PFRS is eligible to 20 receive the accidental death benefit. The bill provides the same
21 eligibility for a person determined by the bureau to be eligible for a 22 death benefit under the PSOB for a member or retirant in the PFRS.

23 If enacted, the change in the definition of child, the amount of 24 the benefit to a surviving spouse, child, or children, and the change
25 in the benefit for an individual determined eligible under the PSOB
26 would apply to a benefit initially granted on or after September 11, 27 2001. The bill provides for an adjustment in the amount of the 28 benefit retroactive to the death of the member or retirement
29 occurring after September 11, 2001. The retroactive payment being 30 based upon the difference between the benefit the beneficiary would 31 have received if the adjustment made pursuant to the bill had been 32 applicable at the date of entitlement and the benefit that the 33 beneficiary received from the date of entitlement to the effective
34 date of the bill.
