CHAMBER The official room or location for meetings of a legislative body.

CHAPTER LAW Each act passed by the Legislature and approved by the Governor. Chapter laws are organized numerically in the order of the Governor’s approval and compiled annually.

CITATION A certificate issued by a legislator to mark a notable achievement by an individual or an organization or to offer a memorial tribute.

CLERK OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY A person who is not a member of the Legislature, elected by the General Assembly to serve as its chief administrative officer. The Clerk's duties include reading all bills and resolutions on first, second, and third reading; recording the vote on all bills and resolutions; and providing general supervision over certain employees of the House.

CODIFICATION OF LAWS The systematic arrangement of laws. In New Jersey, chapter laws are codified according to subject matter.

COMMITTEE Each House establishes standing reference, administrative, and joint committees. The standing reference committee reviews assigned bills and resolutions in a designated subject area and reports them to the House for full consideration. Committees also can conduct investigations and study the implementation of a law regarding to its intent.

COMMITTEE AIDE A professional legislative staff member provided by the nonpartisan Office of Legislative Services and partisan offices, to assist each committee in administrative, technical, and research capacities.

COMMITTEE CHAIR Committee chairs are chosen by the presiding officers of the respective Houses and are primarily responsible for overseeing committee consideration of pending bills. A chair may also direct a review of activity in any State agency.

COMMISSION A group established by law, resolution, or order of the presiding officer to investigate a particular issue or area and make recommendations for legislative or administrative action. Committees or commissions are frequently comprised of legislators of one or both Houses, subject area experts, or members of the public appointed because of the positions they hold in State agencies and private organizations.

COMMITTEE REPORT Report issued by a committee after a meeting indicating all official action taken.

COMMITTEE SUBSTITUTE When a standing reference committee combines several bills that are related in subject to broaden or unify the legislation's intent.

CONCUR To agree.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION A resolution adopted by both the Senate and General Assembly to express the policy or opinions of the Legislature. It is often used to petition Congress to take certain actions; to establish study commissions composed entirely of legislators or appointees of the presiding officer; to adopt joint rules; and to propose amendments to the State Constitution. Requires no action by the Governor.

LEGISLATIVE TERMS

CONDITIONAL VETO A veto in which the Governor objects to parts of a bill and proposes amendments that would make it acceptable. If the Legislature reenacts the bill (by a simple majority) with the recommended amendments, it is presented again to the Governor for signature.

CONFLICT OF INTEREST A situation occurring when an official's private interests may benefit from his or her public actions.

CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT One of twelve districts in New Jersey from which a congressional representative is elected. The districts are established by State law and are redrawn following a decennial census to maintain equal population in each.

LEGISLATIVE TERMS

HOUSE UNDER CALL A motion requiring all members of a House to remain in the legislative chamber during a voting session until the conclusion of business. This may be done to maintain a quorum or during consideration of an important issue.

IMMUNITY The privileges afforded by the Constitution whereby legislators are exempt from arrest while attending a session or when traveling to and from a session (except in cases of treason or high misdemeanor, now classified as a crime of the third degree or greater). Also, the exemption from questioning on remarks made in speech or debate during a session or committee meeting.

INTRODUCTION The presentation of a bill or resolution to the legislative body for its consideration. A bill is formally introduced when the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the General Assembly, in open session, announces the bill's number, sponsor(s), and reads its title.

JOINT RESOLUTION A formal action adopted by both Houses and approved by the Governor. A joint resolution has the effect of a law and is often used instead of a bill when the purpose is of a temporary nature or to establish a commission or express an opinion.

JOINT SESSION The combined meeting of the Senate and General Assembly for purposes such as receiving the Governor's annual "State of the State," budget messages, and other addresses by the Governor or distinguished visitors, and to hold special commemorative ceremonies. The two Houses also meet in joint session when appointing the State Auditor.

JUDICIAL BRANCH One of the three branches of government, the Judicial Branch, under the direction of the Chief Justice of the New Jersey Supreme Court, is responsible for the operation of the State's court system and the regulation of attorneys.

JURAT A certificate attached to a bill confirming its passage in one House before being delivered to the other House for consideration.

LAW All the official rules and codes that govern citizens' actions, including the Constitution, statutory laws enacted by the Legislature, case laws established by court decisions, and administrative law as set forth by Executive Branch agencies.

LEADERSHIP Officers and leaders are elected by members of the two Houses and respective parties. The Senate elects a President and President Pro Tem and the General Assembly elects a Speaker and Speaker Pro Tem. Party members within each House elect a Majority or Minority Leader, Assistant Leaders, and Whips.

LEGISLATIVE AIDES Assistants employed by a legislator to perform a variety of duties including addressing constituent concerns, researching and tracking legislation, and handling administrative functions.

LEGISLATIVE BRANCH The elected, representative branch of State government formed by the Constitution to make and revise laws, appropriate State funds, approve certain executive nominations, and propose constitutional changes.

LEGISLATIVE CALENDAR A listing of the date, time, and location for legislative sessions, committee and commission meetings, and public hearings.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL The chief legal officer of the Legislature and adviser to the legislative leadership and to committees and commissions on matters of parliamentary procedure and legal matters affecting the Legislature.

LEGISLATIVE DELEGATION All the legislators representing one district or county.

LEGISLATIVE DIGEST A report produced by the Office of Legislative Services, Legislative Information and Bill Room (LIBR), the day after each session of either House providing up-to-date information of legislative activity. The publication contains various categories of bill status including bills introduced, bills passed, and bills signed into law since the last session.

LEGISLATIVE DISTRICT One of the 40 areas in New Jersey from which one senator and two General Assembly members are elected. Districts, many of which cross county lines, are established by a special Apportionment Commission and are of equal population.

LEGISLATIVE INFORMATION AND BILL ROOM (LIBR) A unit with the Office of Legislative Services that supplies a variety of information about the legislative activity to legislators and the public.

LEGISLATIVE LIAISON A person who represents an Executive Branch department before the Legislature and who assists the Legislature with technical expertise and information about the department.

PARTISAN STAFF Staff members who serve under the direction of the majority and minority leadership to provide research, policy, public relations, and administrative services to their respective party leaders and legislators.

PERSONAL PRIVILEGE The parliamentary procedure whereby members of both Houses can express their feelings regarding the "safety, dignity, and integrity" of the proceedings or the "rights, reputation, and conduct of members" by gaining recognition from the presiding officer.

POCKET VETO The only type of veto in which the Governor does not return the bill to the Legislature for a possible vote to override. This veto applies only to bills passed within the last ten days of a two-year legislative session. The Governor, in essence, "pockets" the bill.

PRE-FILING OF BILLS AND RESOLUTIONS The process whereby members and members-elect of the Legislature may file bills and resolutions for introduction in the new annual legislative session before that session begins. The pre-filing period runs from November 15 to the first Tuesday in January. Formal introduction occurs after the session is commenced at either the first or second meeting of the House.

PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE A Senator elected by members of the Senate to serve as the chief presiding officer during sessions. The Senate President appoints committee chairs and members of committees and commissions; refers bills and resolutions to reference committees; sets the agenda for session days; and supervises the administration of the day-to-day business of the Senate.

PRESIDENT OR SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE (PRO TEM) A member of the Senate or General Assembly who is elected to serve as that House's presiding officer in the absence of the President or Speaker, literally "for the time being."

PRESIDING OFFICERS The highest-ranking legislative leadership and administrative positions in the two Houses. The Senate elects a President and the General Assembly chooses a Speaker.

PRIME SPONSOR The legislator whose name appears first among the sponsors of a bill or resolution. The prime sponsor has the right to select co-sponsors and may exercise a number of other prerogatives in regard to the proposed legislation. The co-prime sponsor is the second sponsor and enjoys some of the rights with respect to the bill.

LEGISLATIVE TERMS

QUORUM The minimum number of members needed for the House to conduct business (21 members in the Senate; 41 members in the General Assembly).

QUORUM CALL A roll call to determine whether a quorum of that House is present.

READING The reading of a bill's number, sponsor(s), and title in open session by the Senate Secretary or Assembly Clerk. A bill is given first reading upon introduction, second reading when reported by a committee (or may be sent directly to second reading without committee reference), and third reading when posted for a final vote.

REAPPORTIONMENT The redrawing of the State legislative districts by an Apportionment Commission to maintain an equal population in each district. New Jersey's districts are reapportioned every ten years following the federal census.

RECESS A temporary break during a floor session or a period when no legislative sessions are held.

REDISTRICTING The redrawing of electoral districts following a new population census to maintain an equal population in each district.

SERGEANT-AT-ARMS A member of the session day staff under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Senate or Clerk of the General Assembly who assists in maintaining the security and decorum of the House.

SESSION (See LEGISLATIVE SESSION)

SESSION DAY STAFF Personnel operating under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Senate or the Clerk of the General Assembly who perform functions related to the conduct of a session, such as keeping the official record of proceedings, processing bills and official messages, and maintaining the security and decorum of the Houses.

SESSION YEAR New Jersey's session year begins on the second Tuesday of each January. All business conducted during the first year of the two-year legislative session may be continued into the second year, but unfinished business expires at the end of the second year.

SPEAKER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY A member of the General Assembly who is elected by the General Assembly members to serve as the chief presiding officer during sessions. The Assembly Speaker appoints committee chairs and members of committees and commissions; refers bills and resolutions to reference committees; sets the agenda for session days; and supervises the administration of the day-to-day business of the General Assembly.

LEGISLATIVE TERMS

SPONSOR A legislator who introduces a bill or resolution.

STANDING REFERENCE COMMITTEES Committees established by each House to consider bills and resolutions referred by the presiding officer and to review activities of State agencies.

STATE HOUSE New Jersey's capitol building, located on West State Street in the City of Trenton. It is the official location of the State government and houses Executive offices and the Legislative Branch.

STATE HOUSE ANNEX The building adjacent to the State House that houses the Office of Legislative Services, legislative offices, and committee rooms.

STATE HOUSE PRESS CORPS Media representatives of daily and weekly New Jersey newspapers, national news wire services, and area radio and television stations who cover legislative news. Regular capitol reporters are known as "legislative correspondents."

STATUTES The laws created by acts of the Legislature.

"STOPPING THE CLOCK" A strategy used at the end of the legislative session (which occurs at noon on the second Tuesday in January of each even-numbered year), whereby the proceedings continue past noon but the journal indicates occurrence of the action on the final legislative day. Also, occasionally used with respect to passing the appropriations act at the end of the State fiscal year (June 30).

SUBSTITUTE BILL During a voting session, a bill is substituted by an identical bill from the other House which is further along in the legislative process, allowing for speedier final passage.

TABLE To defer action on legislation.

TALLY The final number of votes for and against a bill or amendment.

"THE OTHER SIDE OF THE AISLE" A legislator's way of referring to members of the "other" political party. The phrase pertains to the custom of seating all Democrats in one area and Republicans in another, separated by the center aisle.

UNICAMERAL A legislature composed of one House, e.g. the Nebraska Legislature.

VETO An official action of the Governor to nullify legislative action. Types include the absolute veto, conditional veto, line item veto, and pocket veto.

VETO MESSAGE The Governor's comments explaining reasons for vetoing a bill and setting conditions for reconsideration.

VOICE VOTE A method of voting in which individual votes are not recorded, but instead the members respond verbally, in unison, to vote yes or no.

WHIP A legislator who assists the party floor leader in maintaining party discipline and ensuring attendance at legislative sessions and committee meetings.
