NEW JERSEY CAPITOL COMPLEX

THE NEW JERSEY STATE HOUSE
Home to the executive and legislative branches of New Jersey government since 1792, the State House is an important historical and architectural monument. Visitors can tour the beautifully restored legislative portion of the building including the grand chambers and other significant spaces. In addition to the impressive art and architecture, visitors will learn about its role in a representative democracy. Hours: Free guided tours are available weekdays, 10 a.m.–3 p.m. Reservations are required for all groups. Call the State House Tour Office at (609) 847-3150, or visit njleg.gov.

THE STATE HOUSE ANNEX
Once home to the judicial branch, State Museum, and Library, the Annex now houses legislative offices and committee rooms where public meetings are held. This historic structure contains many interesting architectural details and commissioned artwork. The Office of Legislative Services, Legislative Information and Bill Room provides legislative and visitor information. Annex tours can be arranged through the State House Tour Office. Call (609) 847-3150, or visit njleg.gov.

OLD MASONIC LODGE AND TRENTON VISITORS CENTER
Built in 1793, this building served as the meeting place for Trenton's first Masonic lodge. Visitors may view the original lodge room on the second floor. A Visitors Center on the first floor offers information on local attractions and sites throughout New Jersey. For more information, call (609) 777-1770 or email htmtemple@gmail.com.

THE OLD BARRACKS MUSEUM
The Old Barracks is a historic landmark built for British troops fighting in the French and Indian War. During the American Revolution, the Barracks housed British and Hessian soldiers and Continental troops, and served as a Continental military hospital from 1777-1783. Historical interpreters provide an account of life during the American Revolution. For more information, call (609) 396-1776 or visit barracks.org.

THE NEW JERSEY STATE MUSEUM
The State Museum aims to "preserve, promote, and develop knowledge and appreciation of New Jersey's cultural, historic, artistic, and scientific resources." It contains four floors of exhibit space filled with fine art of the 19th and 20th centuries, collections of household items from the past, Native American artifacts, and a Natural History collection focusing on earth sciences. The museum has a 150-seat planetarium and a 380-seat auditorium. For more information, call (609) 292-6464 or visit nj.gov/state/museum.

THE STATE ARCHIVES
Located in the Department of State building, the State Archives serves as the official repository of all colonial and State government records of enduring historical value dating back to the late 17th century. The Archives also has New Jersey’s largest holdings of records relating to family history, deeds, and court and military records. Research materials may be used by the public. For more information, call (609) 292-6260 or visit nj.gov/state/archives.

NEW JERSEY WORLD WAR II MEMORIAL
Located directly across the street from the State House, New Jersey’s World War II Memorial honors and pays tribute to the courage and sacrifices of our “Greatest Generation” of citizens. The overall theme of “Victory” is expressed through sculptural elements, service markers, and story walls. Interpretive kiosks broaden the visitor experience, and amphitheater seating allows for reflection. For more information, call (609) 984-8400. For administrative offices, call (609) 984-8484 or visit nj.gov/state/memorial.

THE BATTLE MONUMENT
Located at the junction of North Warren and North Broad streets, this 150-foot monument commemorates the 1776 Battle of Trenton. Atop is a statue of George Washington. For more information, call Washington Crossing State Park at (609) 737-0623 or visit nj.gov/dep/parksandforests/historic.

THE STATE LIBRARY
The State Library, affiliated with Thomas Edison State College, is a research library with a collection of over 1 million items. The official depository for State documents, it provides library services to State officials, employees, and residents. The Library has extensive holdings in law, State history, Federal materials, political science, public administration, and genealogy. For more information, call (609) 278-2640 or visit njstatelib.org.

THE WAR MEMORIAL
Opened in 1932, the War Memorial operates as one of the top performing arts centers and conference facilities in New Jersey. Patriots Theater at the War Memorial offers a wide variety of performance events, including ballet, opera, comedy, jazz, classical, rock, country, gospel, and folk. For more information, call (609) 984-1191.

ELLARSLIE, THE TRENTON CITY MUSEUM
An 1848 Italianate mansion houses the museum’s collection, which pays tribute to Trenton’s rich history as a pottery and manufacturing center. There also are changing exhibits of contemporary fine art. The museum is located in Cadwalader Park, which was designed by noted landscape architect Frederick Law Olmstead. For more information, call (609) 989-1191.

THE 1719 WILLIAM TRENT HOUSE MUSEUM
The 1719 Trent House is located on nearby Market Street. Philadelphia merchant William Trent built this classic Georgian mansion overlooking the Delaware River in a wilderness that became known as Trenton. For more information, call (609) 989-3027 or visit williamtrenthouse.org.
